AQI – 2017 MIPS Data Submission to CMS Update

- AQI submitted data for 19,982 providers from 581 practices in March
- CMS will be releasing the final 2017 MIPS scores on July 1, 2018
- Need to have an EIDM account with CMS to view results. EIDM accounts can be obtained through the CMS enterprise portal. Select “PQRS: Physician Quality Reporting System” when asked to “Choose your application.”
- Current reports in the CMS portal may not be reflective of your final MIPS score.
- Benchmarks for several measures are expected to be calculated using data submitted during 2017.
- We expect the calculation of benchmarks using 2017 performance data to result in a modest improvement of final MIPS scores.

NACOR comorbidity data definitions

AQI's Committee on Data Definitions recently completed work on defining comorbidities for NACOR. The comorbidity data set contains more than 100 definitions for various comorbidities, including 13 classifications such as cardiovascular, neurologic, psychiatric, obstetric, pediatric, and pulmonary comorbidities. Reporting your patient's comorbidities will assist NACOR in building risk adjustment models in the future.

Before you register.....

- Understand changes to MIPS reporting in 2018
 - The "pick your pace" option has been eliminated for 2018. 2018 MIPS requires full year reporting.
 - For the Quality component, Eligible Clinicians (EC) must report on six measures, including one outcome measure for 60% of your eligible cases. This is a 10% increase from 2017. The Quality Component will be weighted at 50%.
 - The cost component will now be weighted at 10%.
 - The minimum point score to avoid a penalty adjustment is 15. In 2017, the minimum was 3 points.
 - The penalty adjustment has increased from -4 to -5%.
- Determine a quality reporting mechanism – AQI's NACOR offers two quality reporting mechanisms for practices participating in MACRA – qualified clinical data registry (QCDR) and qualified registry (QR). To decide which quality reporting option is best, review NACOR quality reporting options and mechanisms.
- Decide to report as individuals or as a group – In 2018, NACOR is offering two reporting options – Individual and Group Practice Reporting. While measures available to report will be the same for both options, practices should consider several factors when deciding whether to report individually or by group.
- Review measures – QCDR participants can choose from 2018 MIPS and QCDR measures listed in the 2018 QCDR Measure Specifications approved by CMS in January. The booklet includes QCDR measures for 2018 reporting, changes made to AQI's NACOR 2017 measure specifications in preparation for the 2018 performance year, as well as measures that were removed from the 2018 AQI's NACOR measure set. QR participants can select their measures from the 2018 MIPS Measures available for reporting.
